

Disclosure of Risk and Disclaimer of Liability

WARNING

Attendance at any in-person church services or events carries some risk of COVID-19 infection, which may result in personal illness and, in some cases, severe health effects up to and including death. Individuals who think they may be at increased risk of serious illness or death from COVID-19 for any reason, for example those who are immunocompromised due to medication or an existing health condition, should not attend in-person church services or events.

While Stanley Park Baptist Church (“the Church”) is taking every reasonable precaution to reduce this risk, it is not possible to eliminate it entirely. We cannot guarantee that attendees at any church services or events will not contract COVID-19 by participating in those services or events. The Church and its employees, directors, officers, volunteers, attendees, program participants and their families shall not be held liable for any illness, injury, disability or death arising from COVID-19 contracted at a church service or event.

The Church has made reasonable efforts to communicate the risks associated with COVID-19 should persons attend Church services or events. It has done so in various ways including, but not limited to, posting this Disclosure of Risk and Disclaimer of Liability on its website and on all entrance doors to the Church. By attending any in-person services or events of the Church, you are voluntarily assuming all of the foregoing risks and accepting sole responsibility for any illness or ill effects to yourself or your children arising from COVID-19 contracted at said services or events. You are further agreeing not to hold the Church or its employees, directors, officers, volunteers, attendees, program participants or their families responsible if you contract COVID-19 at those services or events.

By attending any in-person services or events of the Church, you are also agreeing to abide by all rules and recommendations posted in signs on the Church premises or otherwise communicated by the Church, its employees, directors, officers, or authorized volunteers, in order to protect your health and safety and the health and safety of others.

If you would prefer not to accept these risks or responsibilities, we would love to have you join our online service in lieu of in-person attendance.

Thank you for your understanding.
